

NEW TO THE COAST FOR 2010

UK International Soccer Camps is proud to announce they will be hosting a player development camp this summer for player's age 4-16 years old along with Team Camps for any interested coaches and players.

We will be bringing in our professionally qualified Soccer coaches from the UK to teach players of all ability groups how to take their game to the next level and improve their skills and techniques in the game.

UK International is a California based company set up in 1990 to offer The Best Possible Soccer Experience to all those that attend our camps.
